Additional Information

On 05-09-2019, at 1321, patrol units with the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office were dispatched to 8847 Doris Lane in reference to a deceased person.

Upon arrival, the victim (Velvet Burns) was located deceased inside the residence with injuries consistent with a stabbing. The death investigation was later ruled a homicide by the Medical Examiner's Office.

On 05-09-2019, at 1355, I was dispatched to 8847 Doris Lane in reference to the death investigation of Velvet Burns. Upon my arrival, I spoke with 119.071(2)(c). 119.071(2)(c) stated that she was a close friend of the victim. She received a text message from the victim's husband (Jerry Burns / suspect #1) earlier that morning. Jerry asked if she had spoken with the victim that morning. Additionally, Jerry stated that he made multiple attempts to contact the victim, but she was not responding. 119.071(2)(c) stated that it was highly unusual for the victim not to answer her phone and that both she and Jerry were concerned. 119.071(2)(c) made multiple attempts throughout the morning to contact the victim, but all attempts failed.

Around 1230, 119.071(2)(c) drove to the victim's residence to check on the victim. While she was enroute, 119.071(2)(c) called Jerry and informed him that she would contact him once she arrived at the residence. At 1310, 119.071(2)(c) arrived at 8847 Dorris Lane. Upon her arrival, 119.071(2)(c) saw that the back gate and rear door to the residence were open. She called Jerry and told him that something was wrong. Jerry informed her that he was on his way to the residence from Tallahassee.

119.071(2)(c) stated that she entered the residence and found the victim lying on the master bedroom floor. The victim was deceased and covered in blood. 119.071(2)(c) exited the residence and called 911.

At 1611, I spoke with Jerry Burns, who was on scene. Jerry stated that he left the residence at 0330 that morning. Additionally Jerry stated that he was an electrician and was driving to Tallahassee that morning for a job. Jerry stated that when he left the residence at 0330, the victim was alive and was looking at Facebook on her cellphone. Before leaving, Jerry told the victim that he would text her once he arrived in Tallahassee.

Jerry arrived in Tallahassee between 0700-0730 and texted the victim at 0830, but the victim did not respond. Jerry stated that he attempted to contact the victim multiple times, but she did not respond. Jerry found this very concerning and contacted 119.071(2)(c)

Jerry stated that he left Tallahassee around 1030 because he was concerned for the safety of the victim. While driving to Jacksonville, he was contacted by 119.071(2)(c) and informed that she located the victim deceased.

During the course of the investigation, 119.071(2)(c)

On 05-10-2019, at 1400, I spoke with Jerry a second time. At that time, Jerry informed me that he was involved in an extra marital affair with Amanda Love (suspect #2) 119.071(2)(c)

119.071(2)(c)

On 05-31-2019, at 0930, I made contact with Amanda Love at 655 West 8th Street (UF Health). Love was transported to 501 East Bay Street and escorted to the Homicide Unit to be interviewed.

Prior to the interview, Love was advised of her Constitutional Rights, to which she stated understanding and was willing to speak with me about the investigation. The entire interview was digitally recorded. The following is a synopsis of our conversation. Refer to DVD for details.

During the interview, 119.071(2)(c) [REDACTED]

On 05-31-2019, at 1225, Jerry Burns arrived at the 501 East Bay Street and was escorted to the Homicide Unit to be interviewed.

Prior to the interview, Burns was advised of his Constitutional Rights and requested his right to counsel.

Both Amanda Love and Jerry Burns were arrested and charge with with the murder of the victim.
